Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Anyone who has ever imagined himself/herself as the director of a movie knows that he or she will need to say "Lights! Camera! Action!" many times over. That's the necessary trio of directions to cast and crew for each "take" of a scene. Arguably, the lighting is the most important. Otherwise the camera lens is "blind" to any and all action by even the most accomplished actors.

Certainly darkness can be annoying. The "victims" of it, you and me, find ourselves stumbling around. When we're indoors, we might act like bumper cars colliding with furniture or walls, especially in a strange room. Or we knock over a valuable vase, with the crash of the china being our noisy rebuke. All in a frantic search for the light switch.

There is a serious psychological condition, a winter time depression that afflicts many people and baffles the scientists who study it. Its official name is "seasonal affective disorder", a term that produces the cute acronym SAD. People who suffer from it are particularly sensitive to the lack of light especially during the fall and winter. They rejoice in the other two seasons.

How dark had to be the nights in a world lit only by candles! That was the way it was when Our Savior, the Son of God, personally visited our planet. So apt for Him to use light and darkness in His teaching as symbolic of the contrast between sin and sanctity. He wanted our human souls to be loosed from Satan's lies and our gullibility.

Despite our discovery and advances in the use of electricity, that enables our engineers to mimic daylight, we can grasp the potential for danger that darkness offers. When we sin, we know for certain that our inner light has either dimmed, or gone out. Or we can pretend that everything is right between God and ourselves. We are experts at rationalization. (continued...)

(cont'd.) After all, we've been doing it ever since age 7 or so. We make excuses that would rival some of our best storytellers. But deep down we know.

Naturally, we look for someone or something to blame. "The Church is too demanding." Or "It's my weaknesses." Or, "I don't need to go to confession for that." On and on it goes. But deep down we know. We could say that Lent is the season that tells us to wake up, and turn the lights on.

On the matter of light and sound, there is an amusing observation made by Craig Marckwardt that may help us keep our Lenten resolution to guard our speech. He said, "Light travels faster than sound. That's why some people appear bright until you hear them speak!"

Please remember in your prayers: Irene Amodeo, Vera Baker, Deanna, Ron DeCamp, Pauline Donois, Clare Ford, Lori and Patrick Greene, J.H., Kathryn Harte, Hellen Hewit, Patty Holston, John Humphreys, Daniel Kopycienski, Irene Locontore, Anna & Michael McAuley, Jay P. McGuirk, Betty Morgan, Richard Mursheno, Monica Newton, Riley Palmer, Bella, Richard and Peter Pavese, Georgina Peletiera, Peggy & Larry Purfield, Arildo Roberson, June Rosenthal, Ronan Seybold, Irmo V. Show, John R. Smith, III, Anna Stebbins, a special intention, and those in need of prayers.

If you have a name you would like added, please call the Parish Office. at 927-1154.

"With age old love I have loved you, so I have kept my mercy toward you." (Jer. 31:3). This Lent, let us make a true effort to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Let us go before God's chosen representative and confess our sorrow and repentance. Bring our children and show them that truly humble people accept God's mercy.

ADORERS, OFFER ONE HOUR THIS WEEK FOR ALL WHO ARE AFRAID OR HESITANT TO CONFESS THEIR SINS; FOR THOSE WHO DON'T BELIEVE THEY HAVE COMMITTED ANY SINS, AND FOR THOSE WHO WILL KNEEL BEFORE GOD AND HIS PRIESTS AND ASK FOR TRUE SORROW AND ACCEPT GOD'S MERCY.
