Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

The moon and stars align this year to place Easter on the same day as the secular world calls “April Fools’ Day.” It is not intentional on anyone’s part to be disrespectful of this greatest of all Christian feasts. In this context it would be unjust and uncharitable to assert that anyone who denies that Jesus rose from the dead is simply a fool. When all is said and done, to believe that He did rise is a gift in itself. That gift we call “Faith.” Plainly speaking, one either has the gift or does not. The reason for this is one of those perplexing facts that God does not bestow His gifts according to any rationale of ours. He has His reasons. As Cardinal Newman observed, “He is most sure in all His ways.”

Then again, for those who simply doubt that Jesus rose, one can only hope and pray that someday their minds will be convinced and their hearts will follow in order to usher in a peace they deserve.

But for those of us who do believe, this Easter day is the “day of days.” Its juxtaposition with April Fools’ Day can serve as a reminder of how foolish we become whenever we forget the facts of the gospel, and live as if they were fiction.

If Christ is risen, then He is truly God. And if He is God, then everything He said or did represent not only human nature at its best, but also the divine nature as loving us beyond imagination. In fact, He endured Good Friday just for you and me. Truly astounding! That we would ever choose to sin against Him is foolish in the extreme. Truly despicable!

But to believe that our poor expressions of contrition restore His love is humbling beyond words. Truly incredible! Indeed, "This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice in it!"

Here is a touching Easter poem by Cecil Frances Alexander (1818-1895) entitled "There is a Green Hill Far Away."

"There is a green hill far away,
Beyond the city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains he had to bear;
We believe it was for us,
He hung and suffered there.

He died that we might be forgiven;
He died to make us good,
That we might go to heaven,
Saved by His precious blood.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate,
Of heaven and let us in.

Deacon Joe's Bible Class is on Monday, April 2nd in the St. Mark's Room of the Annex.

24 Hours A Day—7 Days a Week

Easter Sunday is the greatest day in the entire world. Without Easter, the Resurrection of Jesus, Son of God, we would have no need to exist and our faith would mean nothing. Rejoice this Holy Day and thank God Our Father for His Son. Thank Jesus for His truly redemptive love for us through His life, death and Resurrection. Thank the Holy Spirit for giving us the faith to believe and accept these great mysteries of love.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

We will observe Divine Mercy Sunday at Our Lady of Sorrows on Sunday, April 8th. Services begin at 3:00 p.m. and will incorporate the recitation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, recitation of the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary, reading of a Concise Catechesis of Divine Mercy Sunday (incorporating Pope Saint John Paul II's Message of 1981) and time for private devotion.

The Holy Hour concludes with Benediction. Divine Mercy Sunday is an annual celebration of God's Mercy when all sin is forgiven and the punishment due to sin is completely removed for those who prepare for this day by celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation prior to today, and who receive Holy Eucharist on the day itself.

The focus of Divine Mercy Sunday is on God's Mercy for sinners, for those who turn to Him with trust.

If you are homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion, please call the parish office at 927-1154. Deacon Joe or a Eucharistic Minister will be bring Holy Communion to your home.

Our Church is blessed to offer Perpetual Adoration, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Please stop in to visit the Blessed Sacrament any time, day or night. If you are interested in becoming a permanent or substitute adorer, please contact:
