My Dear Parishioners,

Our Spring Parish Events are already underway, beginning with our annual “First Communicants Retreat” held last Sunday both in the Church and Hall. The children and their parents rotated participation in several sessions. During one, Fr. Harte explained the parts of the Mass, vestments, chalice, ciboria and Missal and were able to taste a host for themselves (Not consecrated, of course!) In the next session, each child had the opportunity to knead and powder their very own loaf of bread and watch it placed in the oven to bake! (Great work by Tony & Katie DeSalle & friends). Next it was to the “Banner Tables” to assemble the art work representing Holy Communion and to create their personalized Name art on the felt banner. Each child’s banner will mark their pew in church during their Mass of First Communion. Lastly, we watched several segments of a Catholic video series produced for children, highlighting the meaning and beauty of the Sacrament of First Eucharist in their lives. There were light refreshments offered, too. Another enriching and fun event for our Sacrament Families. We offer thanks to Melissa Stuchel, CRE, Tom Salerno (set up) and Mary Dougherty, Aide.

Check elsewhere in this Bulletin for the upcoming schedules for First Holy Communion Masses.

This weekend, April 21, is/was the inaugural “Derby “n Dance” with Music/Dancing/Buffer/Horse Racing and a great time for everyone! Kenny I and Marie will once again keep the evening spirited and, hopefully, many dancing the night away! A grateful shout out to Coordinator Jackie Carney and her Committee! (cont’d...)

A JOB WELL DONE to Billie McClintock who added her creativity to the tickets, posters, décor, mailings and who enthusiastically called our advertisers and supporters and recruited each of those STABLES and HORSE NAMES. To all of you who attended and supported this first-time novelty fund raiser: THANK YOU!

Last classes for the 2017-2018 Religious Education Program (Not Grade 8) were held April 16 and 18th. I spoke with all the students, thanking them for their faithful attendance and participation and reminding them that we should continue to pray every day, perform good works, behave with respect towards parents and guardians and try to regularly attend Mass each weekend throughout the summertime! Parents and grandparents, may I continue to encourage you to do your part, wherever possible, to help nurture the Catholic identity within your family. Do you recall hearing this spiritual maxim: A Family that Prays together, Stays together. We can do this simply around the table before Dinner (pausing our streaming media) or whispering a quiet prayer of gratitude to God before going to sleep.

I was edified by the overwhelming turn out for Easter Sunday Masses which filled every pew and all the extra chairs, leaving standing room only along the walls and packing the lobby and Cry Room! I kept looking for them all to return the following Sunday... perhaps their hearing of the Easter message will stay with them and convince them of Jesus' unconditional love for each of us. We will always make room for them here in our community.

Thanks Melissa, Meg Brestle and sons, Mary D, Kathleen and Kristi Baker (who have signed up to run the event in 2019!) and everyone who filled eggs with candy, scattered them and provided refreshments during the annual Easter Egg Hunt.

Easter Collection and Flowers:
Every Parish relies upon the Sunday Offertory Collection to keep it financially on track: to provide for the staff salaries and benefits, to keep current on bills from our vendors/suppliers as well as to meet our monthly Financial Assessments to the central Diocesan Office.

The Easter Flowers Fund amounted to $1,949.25. The Easter Offertory Collection to date, amounts to $19,192.00. For those who were traveling and were unable to make their Easter Donation, please send it in at your earliest convenience.

Looking ahead:
Sunday, April 22 World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Weekend April 28-29 Pennies for Moms after all Masses
Thursday, May 10 Feast of the Ascension of the Lord,
Holy Day of Obligation
Sunday, May 13 Mothers Day
Sunday, May 20 Pentecost Sunday

May we each strive to become ever more courageous in being a Disciple of the Risen Lord, Jesus Christ!
Peace be with you.

Fr. Paul Harte

ONE HOUR WITH JESUS

“O God, we ponder your love with your temple.” Ps. 48

As we approach Jesus, present on our altar, let us kneel in silent contemplation of His great love for us. He gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believes in Him shall have eternal life. How awesome is God! How great is His love. Let us enter the silence of our church and ponder these mysteries. Only in the quiet can we hear His Spirit.

ADORERS, OFFER ONE HOUR THIS WEEK FOR ALL WHO DO NOT KNOW CHRIST; FOR THOSE WHO HAVE FORGOTTEN HIM, AND FOR THOSE WHO ARE TRYING TO GET CLOSER TO HIM.
