STEWARDSHIP

Managing God's Gifts To Us

Grateful Stewardship

“Jesus said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’” (JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples living Stewardship for Jesus, we are called to be grateful and generous. Look for opportunities to share His peace, not only within our local parish boundaries, but outside of them as well. In giving, we receive the peace of Jesus Christ.

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson
 “Oh what a beautiful morning!” the lyricist wrote, not thinking at all of Easter. It was what his heart prompted him to sing about the early hours of an Oklahoma day. But here we are, all of these thousands of mornings later, on that of Easter 2019. It’s the least we can say. As always, it remains for us believers to say so much more. For Easter always is a harbinger of hope and a grace-filled gateway out of gloom. It provides a reason to believe when contentious reason has to stroke its skeptical chin and wait to be convinced. Above all, Easter is proof positive that Jesus Christ truly is what He claimed to be. He had indeed emptied Himself, though He was, and is, God almighty.

When Jesus rose, or more accurately, “when He was raised” by the Father, suddenly and instantaneously everything He said was endorsed from above. Everything He did was guaranteed authentic. His every Word and action became the greatest audio-visual aid we could ever ask for in learning how to be fully human, and true sons and daughters of God.

Oh what a beautiful morning! As wonderful and true as that is, I feel a bit dismayed. I for one have known this gospel story of “The morning of the Third Day” since childhood. And now that the better part of my life is behind me, I seem at times to be someone who has yet to learn the basics. I am still not at the point where I never have to worry about what I’ll do in the face of temptation. I seem to be nowhere near the stage where I can forget the need for an Act of Contrition. Yet, on second thought, this good news leads me to re-appreciate my faith and my membership in the Church. I can breathe easier.

For those of you who have been given the gift of faith but acknowledge that you often neglect it, and for those of you reading this who only deign to exercise it rarely, this is a day to step back from your accustomed way of thinking and take a logical look at your life. Not to dwell on the negative, but rather to plan to reform and rejuvenate yourself. One can’t go through life really believing that the Third Commandment is a mere suggestion. Or that Jesus’ command to “Do this in memory of Me” was not a direct order from God Himself? The Person who gave that command, the very Lord whose resurrection we are celebrating today, will one day be our Judge. That, along with the incontrovertible truth that our actions always have consequences. Oh what a beautiful morning! You and I, faithful Catholics, brothers and sisters, are blest to know for certain, because of the Easter event, that the faith which the Church teaches, unchanged for two millennia, has withstood the severest of tests and the nastiest of attacks for just as long. And the Church has survived. Not because she has always been led by the best of men throughout her history. Certainly not because she has never let sin seep into her ranks, but precisely because of good people like you who have believed in the power and glory of what happened on the beautiful morning of the Third Day, and then built your lives upon it.

Oh what a beautiful morning! Yes, Jesus is truly risen! The Christ of Promise has become the Lord of Glory, now and forever! This indeed is “the Day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it!”

That said, a happy and blessed Easter to you and yours!

PERPETUAL ADORATION

24 Hours A Day—7 Days a Week
 Alleulia! He is Risen! Our Jesus was crucified and died and is now Risen and with us always. The same Risen Christ is present upon our altar under the appearance of Bread so we can be with Him now. Bring our children before Him this week and teach them the true meaning of Easter and how blessed we are because now we, too, can enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Thank you Jesus.

ADORERS, OFFER ONE HOUR THIS WEEK FOR ALL WHO DO NOT UNDERSTAND THE RESURRECTION; FOR ALL WHO HAVE WANDERED AWAY FROM THE TRUTH AND FOR ALL WHO PRAY FOR THE FAITH.

MORNING AND AFTERNOON SUBSTITUTES ARE NEEDED!! (FILL IN ONLY WHEN ABLE)

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

We will observe Divine Mercy Sunday at Our Lady of Sorrows on Sunday, April 28th. Services begin at 3:00 p.m. and will incorporate the recitation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, recitation of the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary, reading of a Concise Catechesis of Divine Mercy Sunday (incorporating Pope Saint John Paul II's Message of 1981) and time for private devotion. The Holy Hour concludes with Benediction. DVM Sunday is a celebration of God's Mercy when all sin is forgiven and the punishment due to sin is completely removed for those who prepare for this day by celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation prior to today and who receive Holy Eucharist on the day itself. The focus of Divine Mercy Sunday is on God's Mercy for sinners, for those who turn to Him with trust.
