"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."

LUKE 12:15

The Gospel message today is contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous life of Stewardship becoming more "other-centered" and less "self-centered."

“When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you.” (JER. 29:12)
God has told us that He listens to all we have to say, whether from our lips or in our hearts. Jesus is present in the Eucharist upon our altar. How blessed we are that at anytime we may approach Him and know that He will listen.

ADORERS, OFFER ONE HOUR THIS WEEK FOR ALL WHO APPROACH JESUS UPON THE ALTAR; FOR THOSE WHO WANT TO VISIT HIM BUT ARE UNABLE AND FOR THOSE WHO DON'T REALIZE THAT GOD WAITS FOR THEM.

MISSIONARY CO-OP OFFERING

An independent, toll-free number has been established by the Diocese of Camden to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, employees and/or volunteers. Calls are handled by a licensed clinical social worker. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to the N.J. Division of Child Protection and Permanency and Law Enforcement. For info or to inquire about counseling and support services, call 1-800-964-6588.

The weekend of August 10th/11th our parish will welcome Judy Skitek who works with Hands Together to help the missions in Haiti. Our diocesan mission office works with Hands Together to share with us news of how our church continues to help the poorest of the poor. The hurricanes in 2004 and 2008 along with the devastating 2010 earthquake and hurricane have left Haiti severely damaged and in desperate need of our prayers and support. Judy is a faithful volunteer for Hands Together, and has been to Haiti many times and visits parishes around the U.S. to share her experiences working with the Catholic missionaries there.

Can you sponsor a student with a brand new book for the first day of school? The idea is to teach students about random acts of kindness, making friends, being a good friend and to start their school year off with a special surprise that opens the pathway to reading!

On Tuesday, September 3rd, we will have a brand new set of young, sweet faces entering classroom doors again! The first day of school can be overwhelming for students and a kind and caring note would make the world of difference. We would LOVE if they would be able to walk to their seat on the first day of school, open a NEW book, and see an uplifting and encouraging note from someone sending them well wishes, affirmations, and positive vibes. It will always be a reminder that they are important and special.

This would also be a great way to have your child involved in a random act of kindness. They could pick out the book and write the note themselves!! Please make sure to sign the book, but with first names only.

Would you be willing to sponsor a student by supplying a book and a note for the first day? You would need to be able to get it to me sometime before August 26th (so we know how many we have). I will have a box in the back of the church to drop books off. Please remember to write a note to accompany the book.

Do not wrap the books. We can get this started!! We need books for grades: 1 through 8, any age appropriate book would be perfect! Please know that I can't give you the actual name or any information about the students. Maybe we can put down the phone and pick up a book! If you have any questions, please call me at 609 927-0121.

Thanking you in advance, Melissa
