Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

I've seen the following request both in print and in person. A doctor's receptionist or nurse asks me: "May I have your insurance card and your personal ID?" This always strikes me as unnecessary "red tape" because I would have been there before and done this.

Obviously, I would only be there in the first place by order of the doctor. But such is the security precaution needed these days in a world of rampant fraud.

That kind of technological security was unknown in John the Baptist's world. Yet authenticating a stranger's identity was just as important then as it is now, albeit for different reasons. In those bygone days, there were so many false claimants to the august title of "Messiah" that one had to be sure. In this case, we know St. John was sure of Jesus. Had he not called Him "the Lamb of God" at the riverbank? So he must have wanted his own disciples to have the same surety. He was gently striving to get them to shift their allegiance from himself to Jesus. That alone implies a beautiful humility in Our Lord's illustrious cousin.

St. Matthew then gives us a full "job description," if you will, of the authentic Messiah. He does it through Jesus' answer to John's delegation. See the healing and preaching of the Good News that I'm doing. Note how that captures in brief the mission of our Catholic Church.

In our current milieu, the anti-Christ powers seem to have the upper hand. They have their powerful weapons aimed at us who believe. Their leader and champion is no less than a fallen angel Christ Himself called "Satan." He comes at us with his superior intellect and his many clever wiles. Call them "temptations." He has such hatred of God that he never tires of working at deception and lies in all different forms. He wants us bored with Christianity. Have you ever felt that? Instead he wants us to favor whatever attractive disguise he can design for evil. And we fall for it.

The good news is that we have our own Champion, who is Christ. And He told us that the victory is won by His cross and resurrection. It is just the battles that remain. Besides, we know Christ will return. So we can take our cue from James' letter read this weekend. The whole section is caught by just using its first two words: "Be patient!"

Patience is not always our usual American way. But during this Advent season, we can try again to practice it. Our younger generation needs our example. From that they will take the hint that following Christ has its ups and downs, as life itself has, but that heroes are not made overnight or easily. Allow me to return to my opening reference to the habits of the medical profession. Somebody came up with a little homespun wisdom that plays with our language and opined that "It just may be that our hospitals would have fewer pedestrian patients if there were more patient pedestrians."

It is also a crime that must be reported, investigated and responded to so that victims are protected and those who commit abuse are removed from ministry. A special toll-free number has been established to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, religious, employees and/or volunteers. Calls are handled by a licensed clinical social worker. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to the N.J. Division of Youth and Family Services and law enforcement.
