Stewardship Gratitude

"Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." Matthew 2:11

The image of the Magi kneeling before the infant Jesus and opening their treasure chests for Him is an image of Stewardship that we should all try to follow each day. In gratitude for all that we have been given, we are called to generously share all of our gifts, not just the ones we pick and choose. God wants us to be generous with everything, but especially that one thing that means the most to you.

- St. Therese of Lisieux

PERPETUAL ADORATION

24 Hours/Day-7 Days/Week

24 Hours A Day—7 Days a Week

"Come, then, let us bow down and worship, bending the knee before the Lord, our maker. For He is our God and we are his people, the flock He shepherds." (Ps. 95). The Magi traveled many miles and endured all the woes of traveling in strange lands. We have only to travel a very short distance to visit and offer homage to our God. Jesus is present in the Eucharist just as He was present in the stable of Bethlehem. Come, let us adore and worship Him and offer Him our gifts of love, adoration, obedience and gratitude. Bring our children and teach them that Jesus is near them in every Catholic Church throughout the world.

ADORERS, OFFER ONE HOUR THIS WEEK FOR ALL WHO MUST TRAVEL TO BE WITH FAMILY; FOR ALL WHO STAY AWAY FROM FAMILY BECAUSE OF OLD SLIGHTS; FOR ALL WHO STAY AWAY FROM THE CHURCH FOR MANY REASONS AND FOR ALL WHO STEADFASTLY COME TO JESUS TO GIVE HIM LOVE AND THANKS.

NEWS & EVENTS IN & AROUND

The Parish & Diocese

Dear Parishioners,
I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to the Parish Office staff, Liturgical Readers, Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, Altar Servers, Ushers, Musicians, Steve Beddia, Choir Members, Kim Peschi, Cantors, Andrea Granieri, Melissa Stuchel, CRE, Catechists and Aides. To the Adorers of the Blessed Sacrament, Candle Ministers, Church Decorating and Housekeeping, Collection Counters, Office Volunteers, Dee Marinelli, who assembles the Christmas Crèche statutes, Mary Bergman for donating the fresh Maine balsam wreath for the office front door and Pat and John Clement for donating the beautiful Christmas Wreaths on the church doors, to Tom Salerno, and the members of the Young Adult Group for decorating the hall for Advent/Christmas events, for running the annual Christmas Tree Sale and tree decorating the stately Parish Christmas trees and our Nativity, as well as ordering and arranging all the poinsettias in the church. To the members of the Knights of Columbus, Kim Baker, Bingo Coordinator and her Team Members and to anyone, whose name we might have missed, who helped make our parish celebration of Christmas so bright. Thank you to Victor Mozdzan for our on-line Christmas bulletin. Thanks to your charity and spirit of giving, OLS sponsored the Giving Tree in the church lobby for families and individuals. Melissa organized the distribution of toys, gifts and gift cards ($) for families who are in the parish, and received assistance from corporate and business friends as well. Through the Parish Office using your Giving Tree donations of gifts, cash and gift cards from Shop Rite and Walmart, we helped families with children to experience a joyful Christmas.

Deacon Joe and I are most grateful to have received so many cards and gifts of appreciation and prayers from so many of you. We thank you sincerely for your kindness and pray that the year 2020 will provide fresh experiences for each of us to deepen our appreciation of the gifts of the Spirit. May we grow more committed in the living out of the virtues of Faith, Hope and Charity.

Best wishes for a healthy and happy New Year!

Fr. Harte

Reflection by
Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

There is a “dream factory” inside each one of us that produces items that delight us, and at other times scare us, and even warn us. St. Joseph, for example, is a prime example of experiencing the latter, followed by the wise men whose story is read today. As the three of them give us pause as we hear their story again on the Epiphany, we conjure up their exotic wardrobe, trained camels richly saddled, and their precious gifts. But their story is not without the apprehension that evil lurking in the wings causes. In this instance, the good intentions of the visitors are threatened by a scheming neurotic tyrant named Herod.

What offers the wise men warning is their shared dream. So their appearance in the Bible ends as quietly as it began. They mount their camels and set out for their homeland, as Matthew puts it, “by another way.”

There is no reason to doubt God’s ability to speak to any one of us in our dreams. The mechanics of the process are well-known by our Creator. We’re the ones mystified. Of course, we have to be extra cautious in interpreting our dreams lest we yield to a superstitious credibility such as we might give to a boardwalk astrologer or a new age book.

But dreams, those marvelous concoctions of our brains and minds, can be so inspirational as to decide our tomorrows. They also offer us the chance to be wiser than we ever thought we could be. Recall how they helped lift Joseph of Nazareth to sainthood by his obedience to the Lord who instructed him.

Dreams come to the fore in this section of Matthew read today at Mass amid the beautiful Christmas season. This reflecting on dreams is not meant to denigrate other ways that God has to inspire us. A good book, a powerful poem, a symphony or a sunset can motivate us to do good. Above all, the biographies of many of our saints, classical ones like Theresa of Avila or Thomas More, or modern holy people like Mother Teresa or Blessed Father Stanley Rother of Oklahoma can do the same. So can the example of a family member or friend we love and admire.

Yes, we might even open ourselves to wry comments when we speak of our dreams. We might even kid that a certain place is our “dream house” because it usually costs twice as much as you dreamt it would. But, as for being truly wise men and women in the living of the Christian life, we have to remember that “between tomorrow’s dream and yesterday’s regret is today’s opportunity. May your dreams inspire you in this new year and always.
