SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2020 - TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Feast of

Our Lady of Sorrows

This feast dates back to the 12th century. It was especially promoted by the Cistercians and the Servites, so much so that in the 14th and 15th centuries it was widely celebrated throughout the Catholic Church. In 1482 the feast was added to the Missal under the title of "Our Lady of Compassion." Pope Benedict XIII added it to the Roman Calendar in 1727 on the Friday before Palm Sunday. In 1913, Pope Pius X fixed the date on September 15. The title "Our Lady of Sorrows" focuses on Mary's intense suffering during the passion and death of Christ. "The Seven Dolors," the title by which it was celebrated in the 17th century, referred to the seven swords that pierced the Heart of Mary. The feast is like an octave for the birthday of Our Lady on September 8th.—Excerpted from Our Lady of Sorrows by Fr. Paul Haffner (Inside the Vatican, September 2004)

MEMORARE

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

SEPTEMBER 15TH

This feast is dedicated to the spiritual martyrdom of Mary, Mother of God, and her compassion with the sufferings of her Divine Son, Jesus. In her suffering as co-redeemer, she reminds us of the tremendous evil of sin and shows us the way of true repentance. May the numerous tears of the Mother of God be conducive to our salvation; with which tears Thou, O God, art able to wash away the sins of the whole world. As Mary stood at the foot of the Cross on which Jesus hung, the sword of sorrow Simeon had foretold pierced her soul. Below are the seven sorrows of Mary:

1. The prophecy of Simeon (Luke 2:25-35)
2. The flight into Egypt (Matthew 2:13-15)
3. Loss of the Child Jesus for three days (Luke 2:41-50)
4. Mary meets Jesus on his way to Calvary (Luke 23:27-31; John 19:17)
5. Crucifixion and Death of Jesus (John 19:25-30)
6. The body of Jesus being taken from the Cross (Psalms 130; Luke 23:50-54; John 19:31-3)
7. The burial of Jesus (Isaiah 53:8; Luke 23:50-

An Election Prayer to Mary

O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, at this most critical time, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care. Most Holy Mother, we beg you to reclaim this land for the glory of your Son. Overwhelmed with the burden of the sins of our nation, we cry to you from the depths of our hearts and seek refuge in your motherly protection. Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of our people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and threaten the sanctity of family life. Grant our country the wisdom to proclaim that God's law is the foundation on which this nation was founded, and that He alone is the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new Culture of Life.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - SEPTEMBER 13, 2020

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.
Amen

FIRST READING: Sirach 27:30– 28:7

A reading from the Book of Sirach

Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. The vengeful will suffer the Lord's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail. Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the Lord? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins? If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins? Remember your last days set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin! Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger and rich in compassion.

Bless the Lord, O my soul;
and all my being, bless his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger and rich in compassion.

He pardons all your iniquities,
heals all your ills.

He redeems your life from destruction,
crowns you with kindness and compassion.

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger and rich in compassion.

He will not always chide,
nor does he keep his wrath forever.

Not according to our sins does he deal with us,
nor does he requite us according to our crimes.

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger and rich in compassion.

For as the heavens are high above the earth,
So surpassing is his kindness toward those who fear him.

As far as the east is from the west,
So far has he put our transgressions from us

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger and rich in compassion.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - SEPTEMBER 13, 2020

SECOND READING: Romans 14:7-9

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters: None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Alleluia. Alleluia, Alleluia

I give you a new commandment, says the Lord;
love one another as I have loved you.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

GOSPEL: Matthew 18:15-20

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.' Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan. When the servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you? Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart.'"

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH - NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

NEW FORMAT FOR FALL!

Dear Families,

We would like to share with you some important decisions we have made regarding Religious Education classes this year. During this time of uncertainty, we remain committed to the health and safety of our Parish families. For this reason, we have decided to have remote learning for our Religious Education Program this fall. Each student will receive a hard copy of their book and have access to the digital portal Flipgrid. The portal is where the students and families will access the assignments, applicable videos, chapter reviews and assessments. The assessments are sent directly back to us once completed.

Confirmation Prep has had the option to begin their program and that will continue. We will arrange for Confirmation Prep Sessions in person or virtually depending upon social distancing guidelines in the near future. For more information you may email Melissa: SRE@ourladyofsorrows.comcastbiz.net or leave a voicemail at 609-927-0121.

A few words from Fr. Harte.....

Our talented friend and fellow parishioner, Steve Beddia is retiring after almost 30 years of faithful service to Our Lady of Sorrows Parish as Organist, Musical Director and Choir Master.

An accomplished musician, Music teacher and crafter of pipe organs, Steve personally spearheaded the effort to purchase, assemble and to provide ongoing service for this magnificent pipe organ.

And he has exercised all those ranks of pipe as he weekly plays this organ for Mass, Weddings, Funerals and other services.

Each weekend Steve has brought his keyboard talents to bear in showcasing the immense power and range of the organ in service to the Eucharistic liturgy and to support both congregational singing and the choir.

Steve took pride in arranging for many special Liturgies during the year, including Confirmation, the Christmas Eve Concert and Solemn Midnight Mass and the triumphant Solemn Easter Liturgies. He personally arranged for the hiring of additional musicians to perform at these events, which everyone agreed added depth and drama to these memorable musical performances.

I extend my warm congratulations as we honor your decades of accomplished and loving service to this Parish. Your skills and talents at the pipe organ keyboards, moved our hearts to experience your passion for music and faithfully led us into prayerful song for the honor and glory of God.

We pray that you will experience joy in retirement and health as you enter this new phase of life!
