THE THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen

FIRST READING:

God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. For he fashioned all things that they might have being; and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is not a destructive drug among them nor any domain of the netherworld on earth, for justice is undying. For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it.

The Word of the Lord

R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM RESPONSE:

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

SECOND READING:

Brothers and sisters: As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also. For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality.

As it is written: Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less.

The Word of the Lord

R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL:

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed death and brought life to light through the Gospel.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him. [There was a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. She had suffered greatly at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet she was not helped but only grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak. She said, "If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured."

Immediately her flow of blood dried up. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. Jesus, aware at once that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who has touched my clothes?" But his disciples said to Jesus, "You see how the crowd is pressing upon you, and yet you ask, 'Who touched me?'" And he looked around to see who had done it. The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction." While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha kum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.

The Gospel of the Lord

R. Praise to you Lord, Jesus Christ

PROFESSION OF FAITH - NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

NEW JERSEY
CATHOLIC CONFERENCE

STATEMENT OF THE NEW JERSEY BISHOPS
Reinstating the General Obligation to Attend Mass

At this time, due to the observance of public safety protocols and the increase in the availability of vaccines, we have begun a return to some sense of normalcy in various sectors of our society.

The Church is now opened with full capacity seating, offertory collections and all ministries.

The protocol of using hand-sanitizer before entering your pew and wearing a mask if you have NOT been vaccinated are in effect. When going up to receive Holy Communion you are encouraged to wear your mask and leave a distance behind the person in front of you.

The Catholic Bishops of New Jersey, lifted the dispensation of the Sunday and Holy Days Mass Obligation the weekend of The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We welcome the Christian faithful to return to the regular participation in the Sunday Eucharist, the source and summit of our Catholic faith (cf. Code of Canon Law canon 1247 and Catechism of the Catholic Church, n. 2180).

This obligation does not apply to those who are ill; those who have reason to believe that they were recently exposed to the coronavirus or another serious or contagious illness; those who are confined to their home, a hospital, or nursing facility; or those with serious underlying health conditions. One should consult Fr. Harte if questions arise about the obligation to attend Mass (canon 87).

We are still collecting NEW Children's books (Grades: Pre K to 8th). The idea is to start the year off with a special surprise that opens the pathway to reading! We are collecting books for the students in Atlantic City schools.

Please purchase a book, write a note in the front cover or place a note in the book and bring it in BEFORE August 1st. We will have a collection box in the back of the Church. Do NOT wrap the books.

Should you have any questions or need suggestions for books, please contact Melissa Stuchel @609-271-7231.

We would LOVE each of our Atlantic City students to walk into their seat on the first day of school and open a NEW book with an encouraging message. .

Show your love for babies in the womb!
Get a "Baby Feet" Car Magnet!

Symbols are very important in successful social movements. Show your love for babies in the womb and their families by putting a "baby feet" magnet on your car.

There will be volunteers at the doors of the church this weekend giving out baby magnets. Please get one and put one on your car. (Donations are gratefully accepted.) To get a car magnet by mail, email: BabyFeetMagnet@gmail.com with your name and mailing address or call: 973-497-4500. Let's get this symbol all over the roads of New Jersey! Thank you for your support.

NEWS & EVENTS IN & AROUND THE DIOCESE

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

At the recent meeting between Betty Napoli, our Rel Ed Coordinator, with Fr. Harte, Deacon Joe, and Catechist Tom Salerno, it was agreed that we would offer all our Rel Ed families an additional window of time to finish their current year's religion texts, complete the exercises and update their reporting of progress by logging into Flip Grid. We will NOT be offering a Summer Program this year.

The date of Monday, August 16, 2021 has been established as the FINAL DAY for all students in Grades 1-7 to have completed their work for 2021.

After that date, registrations will be conducted for the Fall 2021-2022 Religious Education Program, as we hope to offer classes conducted face-to-face in the Annex classrooms. We are at work to enlist possible catechists for Fall. Families in our program will be receiving a letter/email from Betty Napoli detailing the "Wrap Up" for 2020-2021 school year.

For Grade 8 students preparing for Fall 2021 Confirmation, Catechist Tom Salerno requires you to deliver to him, in an envelope with your name written on the outside, your text (with assignments completed and filled in), your typed Saint Report, your typed Work of Mercy and Charity paper. Please drop off in the Hall, especially on Monday afternoons and evening or in the Church Lobby, where a box will be located.
