“I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living.”
(MARK 12:43-44)

Jesus gets right to the point – we are all called to the Stewardship of Treasure. We are to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your “first fruits” or from what is “left over”?

All Souls Day

The Bereavement Ministry has developed a Service of Remembrance to honor all of our relatives and friends who have passed away. On Sunday, November 7th we will honor all our departed loved ones during the 10:00 a.m. Mass. An additional Tribute Board will be available to write the name of a family member who died this year and was not buried from our parish. Immediately following the Mass there will be a Remembrance Service with candle lighting and scripture beginning at 11:15 am. All are invited to bring a photo of your loved one to place on the table. The names of your loved ones who have passed away this year and whose funeral Masses were celebrated at Our Lady of Sorrows Church will be displayed on a Tribute Art Board near the sanctuary. For information please contact Ginger Leroy at 609 665-0166.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen

FIRST READING: 1 Kings 17:10-16 (155B)

In those days, Elijah the prophet went to Zarephath. As he arrived at the entrance of the city, a widow was gathering sticks there; he called out to her, "Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink." She left to get it, and he called out after her, "Please bring along a bit of bread." She answered, "As the LORD, your God, lives, I have nothing baked; there is only a handful of flour in my jar and a little oil in my jug. Just now I was collecting a couple of sticks, to go in and prepare something for myself and my son; when we have eaten it, we shall die." Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid. Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me. Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son. For the LORD, the God of Israel, says, "The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth." She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well; the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the LORD had foretold through Elijah

The Word of the Lord

R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM RESPONSE:

Praise the Lord, my soul!

SECOND READING: Hebrews 9:24-28

Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands, a copy of the true one, but heaven itself, that he might now appear before God on our behalf. Not that he might offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters each year into the sanctuary with blood that is not his own; if that were so, he would have had to suffer repeatedly from the foundation of the world. But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice. Just as it is appointed that human beings die once, and after this the judgment, so also Christ, offered once to take away the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to take away sin but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

The Word of the Lord

R. Thanks be to God.

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

GOSPEL: Mark 12:38-44

In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds, "Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues, and places of honor at banquets. They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers. They will receive a very severe condemnation." He (Jesus) sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you Lord, Jesus Christ

PROFESSION OF FAITH - NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops
October 10, 2021-October 21, 2023

There have been 15 previous such Assemblies since St. Paul VI established the Synod process at the conclusion of the Second Vatican Council. He did so to broaden the consultation that the Holy Father and the Holy See receive on specific issues.

This Synod will ultimately discuss the synodal nature of the Church. Rooted in an understanding of “the sense of the faithful” among the members of the Church, Pope Francis wants to broaden the consultation by inviting the faithful throughout the world to listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit in their experience of the Church. At the same time Pope Francis hopes this process will give, we the faithful, a voice—and increase our participation in the life of the Church, deepening our communion with the Church and helping us to live out the mission of the Church.

A Synod is a fancy word for “meeting” and emphasized the need for an active participation rather than a simple passive reception of information. By our speaking and listening, we are encouraged to share our stories and together uncover the Holy Spirit’s movement in our midst. The Holy Spirit has the power to reveal that which leads to holiness and that which remains an obstacle to holiness—both need to be known.

What is the goal? Our modern world provides countless ways for people to communicate but at the same time requires NEW WAYS of proclaiming the Gospel—the Good News that God in Jesus took on flesh, suffered, died and was raised from the dead to give meaning to our lives and the hope of life eternal. How are we as members and how is the Church Universal making that proclamation? What needs to happen to spread the Good News in the world today?

Five members of our Parish have accepted the invitation to serve as Parish Delegates. They include: Tricia Hughes, Toni Rochow, Rob Switzer, Walt and Marge Spilker. We anticipate others joining them as “facilitators” in the listening meetings that are scheduled in the Hall following each Mass over the next month. The meetings will last for an hour. Light refreshments will be offered. The delegates have a role to be interested in understanding the insights that will be shared. They are called to be the “ears” of the Church, listening to what you as parishioners share about your experience of the Church, your journey of faith and your hopes for what the Church can be. These delegates will be shepherds of a process, gathering the flock and facilitating a meeting providing an opportunity for you to share your experiences thereby revealing the “direction” of the Holy Spirit in this process. They will be “reporters” and are NOT responsible for answering your questions. They will take notes, gathering what they hear to craft a Parish Report of what was collectively heard at the meetings. This report will be shared within the Deanery and forwarded to the Camden Diocesan Synod Office. Please consult the Schedule of Meetings to be held during November, printed in this bulletin. Please pray for the success of this Synod. Fr. Paul Harte, Pastor

What It Is

LISTEN TO THE LAITY

Opportunity for the Church to renew herself and to imagine a different future keeping with her mission under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and the Word of God.

What It is Not

COMPLAINT SESSION OR DEBATE

Rather the listening to questions and issues on the role of the Church in the lives of her people and to examine ways to grow in the future as a people “journeying together.”
