“Roses for Life”
The Knights of Columbus are accepting donations for “ROSES FOR LIFE”, after all Masses during the weekend of January 8 & January 9, 2022. The accepted donations will help defray the costs for bus transportation to the annual “March for Life” Rally on Friday, January 21, 2022 in Washington, DC. The Knights thank you for your continued generous support for the Pro-Life cause.

Do you enjoy people? Do you like to work with a team? Can you give 3 hours on a Friday night?? We are ready to start Bingo in January, 2022. We have a Coordinator, a Caller and volunteers. Your service would then be one Friday night a month. Come share your time and talent! Your service will help us keep our largest fundraiser going. We ask that everyone help out each Friday in January to get started.

Our Bible Study sessions will resume on Monday, January 24th at 7:30 pm and continue through Monday, March 28th. We are going to try to do this in person in the St. Luke Room in the

There will be a fee of $20.00 for the materials which include the text of Acts and the Collegeville Biblical Commentary. Please bring or mail the fee to the Parish Office by Friday, January 7th. The books should be picked up by Friday, January 14th in order to prepare for the first class.

*The Epiphany of the Lord Stewardship Gifts
"They prostrated themselves and did him homage.
Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh."
(MATTHEW 2:11)*

What gifts do Stewards give to the Lord? Pope St. Gregory said that these three gifts represent what we should give God every day. Gold – we should reflect Christ's wisdom in all our relationships. Frankincense – represents our daily prayer and adoration to God. Myrrh – is a symbol of our daily sacrifices that we unite with Jesus for the sake of others.

MARCH FOR LIFE

January 21st, 2022

Washington, D.C.

What does the word “Epiphany” mean? “Epiphany” means “manifestation.”

What is the feast of the Epiphany about? The Epiphany is the manifestation of Jesus as Messiah Israel, Son of God and Savior of the world. The great feast of Epiphany celebrates the adoration of Jesus by the wise men (magi) from the East, together with his baptism in the Jordan and the wedding feast at Cana in Galilee. In the magi, representatives of the neighboring pagan religions, the Gospel sees the first-fruits of the nations, who welcome the good news of salvation through the Incarnation. The magi's coming to Jerusalem in order to pay homage to the king of the Jews shows that they seek in Israel, in the messianic light of the star of David, the one who will be king of the nations. Who were the Magi? Pope Benedict explains: Magi are understood to be members of the Persian priestly caste. In Hellenistic culture they were regarded as “rulers of a distinctive religion,” but at the same time their religious ideas were thought to be “strongly influenced by philosophy,” so that the Greek philosophers have often been portrayed as their pupils. For the Magi in Matthew 2, they were nevertheless custodians of religious and philosophical knowledge that had developed in that area and continued to be cultivated there. Why did the magi come to see Jesus? They may have been especially motivated to come see this king of the Jews since there was an expectation at the time that a universal ruler would shortly come from Israel. Pope Benedict explains: We know from [the Roman historians] Tacitus and Suetonius that speculation was rife at the time that the ruler of the world would emerge from Judah — an expectation that [the Jewish historian] Flavius Josephus applied to [the Roman emperor] Vespasian. Why did they go to Herod? Probably, because they assumed the newborn king would be a son of Herod — the current “king of the Jews.” Pope Benedict comments: It is quite natural that their search for the newborn king of the Jews should take them to Israel’s royal city and to the king’s palace. That, surely, is where the future king must have been born. This, of course, played into Herod's paranoia for his throne and led to the slaughter of the innocents. What was the star? It is hard to know. Some question whether the star was a natural phenomenon at all, pointing out that it seems to lead the magi to Jerusalem, disappear, and then reappear and hover over the house in Bethlehem. But this isn't what Matthew says. He does not say that the star led them to Jerusalem. They merely report that they had seen the new king's star “in the east” (Matthew 2:2; that is, back in their homeland), which is why they came to Jerusalem. What he does say is: When they had heard the king they went their way; and lo, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came to rest over the place where the child was [Matthew 2:9]. This does not necessarily mean that the star appeared to move in the sky in a way that stars don't ordinarily. Departing from Jerusalem at night, they may have noted on the short (6 mile) trip to Bethlehem that the star was in front of them in the sky — a coincidence arranged by divine providence. Then, when they got to the house, they noticed it was directly over the house — again, a coincidence arranged by divine providence but not necessarily an unusual motion for a star. ( Selected passages from the National Catholic Register Online Jimmy Akin Blogs Jan 5, 2020).
