Fourth of July Prayer

Fr. Ed Hays
A Pilgrim's Almanac, p. 111

We lift up our hearts, O God,
on this day of celebration in gratitude
for the gift of being Americans.

We rejoice with all those who share
in the great dream of freedom and dignity for all.

With flags and feasting, with family and friends
we salute those who have sacrificed
that we might have the opportunity to bring to fulfillment
our many God-given gifts.

As we deny all prejudice a place in our hearts,
may we also clearly declare our intention
to work for the time when all people,
regardless of race, religion, or sex,
will be granted equal dignity and worth.

Saints Peter and Paul, Apostle "I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith." (2 TIMOTHY 4:7)

How many of us can say this? St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God doesn't call us to be successful, he calls us to be faithful." How many times have we been blinded by the success of the world at the expense of our faith? Matthew Kelly says, "Take one minute each day to live Stewardship reminding yourself that you are just passing through this life and will die one day; you will live more intentionally with a passion and purpose."

A sculptor who wishes to carve a figure out of a block uses the chisel, first cutting away great chunks of marble, then smaller pieces, until he finally reaches a point where only a brush of hand is needed to reveal the figure. In the same way, the soul has to undergo tremendous mortifications at first, and then more refined detachments, until finally the Divine image is revealed. When we die to something, something comes alive within us. If we die to self, charity comes alive; if we die to pride, service comes alive; if we die to lust, reverence for personality comes alive; if we die to anger, love comes alive.”

Fulton J. Sheen (from Peace of Soul)
