Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Surveys are to some websites like ants to picnics. Part of life and hard to avoid. But if Jesus gets involved in anything, even a survey, we have to pay attention. We just heard (or read about) Our Lord conducting a survey of His chosen men.

First, the locale. Usually significant in the gospels. We're in Caesarea Philippi, a predominantly Gentile city north of Palestine. Originally known as Panias because of a shrine built there to honor the god, Pan. When Herod the Great's son Philip became tetrarch, he rebuilt the city and named it Caesarea to honor Tiberius the emperor...He cleaned and dressed it up (not with a ballroom) and added his name so the emperor would know it.

So here, among impressive Roman marble and plentiful statues of pagan gods, Jesus asks the Apostles two important questions: "Who do men say that I am?" & "Who do you say that I am?"

We can assume a stunned silence from the group and then a list of possibilities before Peter pipes up, as he is wont to do, with the correct answer: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God!" "Wow!" we think. "Peter sure got it right!" And Jesus wholeheartedly agrees. (Try to remember this scene next Holy Thursday night, when Peter vehemently denies Jesus to the servant girl in the high priest's garden when she confronts him hovering by the fire.)

Jesus rightly pinpoints the source of Peter's insight as the Holy Spirit within him. Then He gives Peter the keys to the kingdom, with power and authority of office that begins here and brings us right to Leo XIV from Chicago!

Rather than defend the papacy to all sorts of critics out there in cyberspace, I'd rather reflect on what St. Peter's answer to Christ means for you and me. But what does it mean? Certainly, the endurance of the Church for more than twenty centuries comes to mind. That plus the comfort of knowing with certainty the Church's purpose. The realization that its central truths about Jesus are forever. That no other plan on how to live is as responsive to God's will as that of Christianity. I must add that we are part of the only Church with a pope as successor to Peter.

But now comes the question right at you and me this summer Sunday. Who do you say Christ is? Your answer and mine determine everything. We shouldn't need a survey to tell us. Allow me to close with a quote that fits the situation: "The true Christian is a person who is right-side-up in a world that is upside down."

God love you and give you His peace.

Curious About the Catholic Faith?

Do you know someone who has been worshipping with us but never officially taken the steps to become Catholic? Perhaps you are a baptized Christian from another tradition interested in the Catholic Church, or a baptized Catholic who has not yet received Confirmation or First Communion? "We invite you to come and see." Our (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) program offers a welcoming environment to ask questions, explore our faith and journey together. No commitment is required to start—just an open heart. Please contact the Parish Office at 609 927-1154 and someone from the OCIA program will reach out to you.

Ministry of Motherhood

The Ministry of Motherhood has been active at Our Lady of Sorrows and St. Joseph Parishes for almost twenty years. We are a small group of mothers at all stages of life who meet periodically for social, spiritual, and service activities. At this time our primary activities include periodic Book and Dessert Nights and potluck dinners as well as monthly Children's Rosary on the first Saturday of each month. We also host an annual "Pennies for the Poor Project" which has provided funds for houses in Haiti, bicycles in Columbia, a bathroom with plumbing and more in the Dominican Republic, a roof for a church in Tanzania, and more. If you would like to join our email list or get more information, please text or call Alice at 609-431-0655.
