THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Here's a question: "Have you noticed how investment brokers ride the airwaves with abandon these days with cautions for the unwise to 'buy gold or silver now, especially for those wanting a crash-proof retirement?'" I'm sure you have, especially if you follow the newscasts.

So a parable of Our Lord's teaching about the best way to handle investments with wise stewardship fits right in. But the teaching is not just about earthly finances. Nor is the spiritual lesson the Master teaches limited to any one time or season.

This Parable of the Talents is a story for mid-November, with an eye not only to the ending of the calendar year, but also to that of the Church year. We can extend its lesson to include the context of the ending of the world.

Spiritual wisdom comes from consultation with Christ and the saints. Note how the nervous servant in the story may have been envious of the servants who were given more money. That made him wary and distrustful of his master. He became less a helper. He is not anything like the good wife who is praised in our First Reading from Proverbs.

So, if we learn one lesson today, it is to be wise in using the particular gift or talent God has given us. That precludes any undue nervousness about the Last Day.

In the 1973 movie "Papillon," the main character was a criminal who was imprisoned for life for crimes against the French state. The movie portrayed the dreams he had while in prison. In one dream, he stood before a tribunal for a crime. He pleaded with the judge that he was not guilty of the crime for which he was being tried. The judge replied that he was not being tried for that crime, but for a crime that is the most heinous crime of the human race. Papillon asked what crime it was. He replied, "The crime of a wasted life." Papillon wept, "Guilty, guilty." The judge pronounced the sentence of death.
God love you and give you His peace.

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." – Matthew 22:37

Do you put other "gods" before God? Is your love of money, power, status, comfort or some personal possession greater than your love for God? Do you recognize that everything you have and that everything you are is a gift from God? Putting God first through stewardship helps keep us from becoming a slave to our possessions and to our pride.

Fr. Lobo will be conducting a retreat on Saturday, December 12th, 7am- 12 noon to prepare better for the coming of the Lord. Christmas is one of the biggest celebrations we have on our calendars but over the years it has become more commercial than spiritual one. Here is an opportunity for you to take part in a better spiritual preparation for the coming of the Lord. It is more a spiritual preparation than a retreat. Please consider taking part in this spiritual preparation to make your Christmas celebration great this year.

There will be a signup sheet at the back of the church. Please sign-up only if you're able to attend the full retreat without any exception. I look forward to this opportunity to be together.
